

MATTOCKS FAMILY MISSIONS

He who calls you is faithful, and He will do it.

1 THESSALONIANS 5:24

Our hearts are so ecstatic. God continues to be faithful. It still amazes me that when He shows up and moves, I am still shocked and amazed. I guess it is part of the wonder of God. We have been home for just over 6 months. Every weekend we travel to a different church, explaining and giving glory for the things God is doing in Colombia. When we got our budget update, we had another reason to give God glory. We, because of you our partners, have reached 72% of our monthly budget. We are so thankful to each and everyone of you that has come along side us on this journey! Although, we still need 28%, everyday we are thankful for His faithful. He will do it!!

Praise:

We are at 72% of our monthly goal!

We were able to get TaraBeth's visa, no issues!

Our Sundays are booked through the end of this year!

We flew in and out of Colombia, keeping our visas activated, safely.

Prayers:

The kids as they finish their last 3 weeks of the school year.

People and churches to partner with us to finish our budget.

Continued safety as we travel through NY and PA every weekend.

When you can't trace His hand, trust His heart.

As we sit and drink our hot coffee, and all the pumpkin things sometimes we get overwhelmed at where the weeks and months have gone. Days are a blur and usually I have no idea the actual date. Traveling and sitting with the kids for school seems so routine, and mundane. Living from suitcases and only staying 2 weeks, at a time, in one place, comes with a dullness. It is easy to feel lost, and ask God what are you doing? Where are you?

However, in those times of fuzz, and especially as we are closing in on Thanksgiving, there are so many things to be thankful for. Every new church is new family, helping us in the call God gave us. Every visit to a partnering church, is like coming home to a family reunion. Our hearts are so full seeing what God is doing here in our passport country through and in each of you. We have learned to cherish our time with family, keeping it in our hearts knowing in the coming years we will miss it. Spending a week in Colombia, while we took care of some visa things for TaraBeth, we came home energized. We know and are burdened with the work that waits for us there. Yet we came home excited to be at each church, meeting, and conference. What new things is God wanting to do in us each week? Sometimes we do not see Him working. But man, can trust His heart!
